The green tourmaline pendant is the next step for everyone who wishes to evolve his/her orgonite experience. It is highly recommended for people who practice meditation techniques because of their ability to be in tune with this pendant's delicate energy. In addition, it provides help to the nervous system thus it is usually preferred by people who deal with such problems – even if it is their first contact with orgonite.

Recommended for:

- Constant protection from negative energy of physical or etheric form, especially during meditation.

- Leveling off the nervous system.
- Enhancing the meditation process.

Usage specifications for greater results:

- Ideally, to be worn at heart height with the spiral against the chest – inside or outside clothing makes no difference.
- Preferably, do not wear at the same time with other pendants made of metal (such as gold, silver etc.)
