The Body & Space Orgonite is the most multi-use of all orgonites, due to its compact yet powerful shape. It can be used for working the body and the environment, with the greatest of ease. The relatively small size makes it ideal to carry it in your handbag, leave it on your office desk or working with it on your body parts.

Has a range of approximately 2 meters and can be used in a perimeter network of four to cover a room of about 15-20 square meters. Like all orgonites, it protects from any kind of negative and harmful energy (physical or etheric).

Recommended for:

- All cases that require discreet presence of a sufficiently powerful orgonite buster.
- Working on our body, harmonizing the energy flow, bringing pain relief etc.

Usage specifications for greater results:

- Have the orgonite buster somewhere near you or on you.
- If you carry it in your handbag, make sure that it is on your left side.
- In the office, place this orgonite near devices that emit electromagnetic radiation.
